

Drafting Civil Engineering Job Exhibit
Rating Sheet

(All drawings should contain the elements of a professional drawing.)

Judging Criteria	Points Allowed	Points Awarded
Cover Sheet: A cover sheet has been included with the drawing	5
Subdivision Layout: Proper drafting technique has been used to draw the subdivision. A legend, scale and legal description has been included, lots and blocks, roadways, easements, etc., are included in the drawing.	10
Linework and Symbology: Proper line weights and line types have been utilized throughout the Subdivision, symbols are correct scale and symbology is accurately depicting features.	30
Annotation and Dimensions: All appropriate annotations and dimensions have been included throughout the survey, including all bearing and distances, easements, ROWs, road names and lot / block numbers. All text is also located in the correct areas and in the correct directions.	25
Scale: Drawing, annotation, dimensions, line types and symbols have been scaled correctly and with an appropriate scale.	15
Legibility and Professionalism: Text, annotation and dimensions are easily identified and are legible. Drawing looks professional and clean, does not look cluttered	15
Notebook: Documentation (Notebook/Folder): Enter Score from the Job Exhibit Notebook Grading Rubric 300 points possible	300
Total Points	400
Note to Judges: If an exhibit is rated less than qualified for state or superior, the judges should explain why below:
Judges Remarks:		